

What will you be doing on Memorial Day?

Memorial Day, formerly called Decoration Day, was originally established in 1868 to honor and ensure that those who sacrificed their lives were not forgotten. Traditionally, flowers and medals are placed on their graves. Trumpets are played at Honor Ceremonies held by military personnel. It is often a time of reflecting on loved ones. A sense of gratitude for life and the reality of death surrounds this day.

How will you be honoring the Creator of your Life with your gratitude?

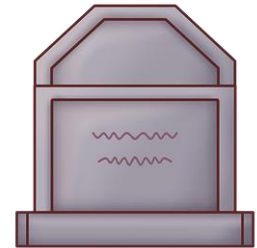

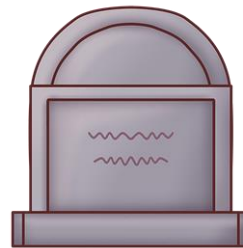

Will you be honoring the One who gave His life and came back to life again for you to have eternal life?

Want to know how to receive this eternal life for which Jesus Christ died? Find out here...
